Author Visit

CAROLE FRANCO, AUTHOR OF THE DANCING CHIHUAHUA WILL PRESENT HER BOOK TO STUDENTS ON MAY 16, 2023, IN THE BOLTON CENTER SCHOOL LIBRARY. SHE WILL DISCUSS HER "EDUCATION DOG," CHICHI, WHO LOVES TO GO TO SCHOOL AND HAS LESSONS FOR STUDENTS.

Chi-Chi the Chihuahua is a special dog who goes to school! The children love to see her, so she is happy to join the class while her mom teaches French and Spanish. Chi-Chi helps the students learn lessons about good behavior which apply whether you are a dog or a child: sit quietly and pay attention to the lesson, always be kind, and don't be mean to others. Chi-Chi also gets a new sister, Poupette, a Pomeranían. Carole Franco enjoyed a dual career in education and international relations, spending the majority of her years in education. An adamant dog lover, she felt compelled to write a story about her beloved Chihuahua "education dog" who for many years visited Bolton Center School to entertain students. She has supported various animal groups and plans to continue that support as a volunteer in the future. Carole wrote her personal memoirs and authored articles for the Cambridge University and Duke University magazines about her experiences as Lady Mayoress of Westminster in London. The illustrator, Caroline Novak, is a gatehreper press Boston stationed free-lance artist.
