

Revolutionary War Camp N^o. 5

— Historic Encampment —

Saturday, Oct. 7th & Sunday, Oct. 8th

Bolton Heritage Farm—266 Bolton Center Rd.

- ⇒ Did you know French soldiers camped in Bolton in 1781, on their way to meet George Washington's Continental Army?
- ⇒ Would you like to walk through/see what it was like to be a soldier in the Revolutionary War?
- ⇒ Did you know you would have gone with your Dad/family as he marched and camped?
- ⇒ Would you like to see how YOU would have spent your time, played games & more?
- ⇒ Did you know you can bake a pie on a camp fire?

All ages are welcome for a fun weekend to experience an encampment hosted by the Bolton Heritage Farm & Le Régiment Bourbonnais 13^{ème}.

For more info

